The women's association of the Congregational church will hold its regular meeting in the church parlors Wednesday at 2:30. Ladies please come prepared to sew, also bring any articles of clothing suitable to put in a missionary barrel.

A special meeting of Col. J. B. Mead circle, Ladies of the G. A. R., will be held Thursday afternoon, Oct. 18, at 2:30 o'clock. Department officers will be present to inspect the work. Let all officers and members be present. Refreshments of ice cream and cake will be served. Each bring dishes for one.

Special policemen who have been in the service of the Barre department since the police quarantine was instituted last July were recalled from duty Saturday night and unless there is another outbreak of the disease the patrol system will be discontinued permanently. The emergency patrolmen have served efficiently and at all times sought to co-operate with the police department and the board of health.

Saturday afternoon at 2:30, in Howland hall, Miss Spear will present her pupil, Miss Isabel Gall, in an especially interesting recital for piano. Miss Gall will be assisted by Roger Erickson, violin soloist; Roland Morgan, accompanist, and Miss Marion Anker, who will give two readings. Miss Spear's pupils, their parents and friends, and any other interested persons are most cordially invited to be present. No admission fee.

A sewing meeting will be held at the hospital Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and as there is considerable sewing which must be done for the Barre hospital this quarter, every member of the ladies' aid is urged to help out all they can. If those who cannot come to the sewing meetings would be willing to take some work home, same would be greatly appreciated and by calling 245-M, arrangements could be made by the chairman of the sewing committee to get same.

James Booth of Washington street, who has been engaged as a special policeman during the polioquarantine, has completed his duties at police headquarters. Mr. Booth leaves to-night for New York, whence he is to sail within a few days for Liverpool, England, where he is to proceed to his former home in Aberdeen, Scotland, there to rejoin Mrs. Booth and children. He has been employed as a granite cutter in this city for many years and expects to make a stay of indefinite length in the land of his birth. Mr. Booth is one of a very few of his countrymen who have essayed to leave the submarine dangers by returning home during the war, trans-Atlantic travel on the part of Barre people having been nearly negligible of late, although before the war a large number of people left annually for Scotland to spend the winter.

At their home, 194 Washington street, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Gustafson were surprised by the arrival of a company of 65 friends Saturday evening. The affair took the form of a housewarming, as the host and his wife recently occupied for the first time the house purchased by them of H. E. Reynolds. The head of the house was absent when the guests arrived and his surprise upon entering was complete. An evening of music and games followed. An impromptu musical program included several vocal selections, the accompaniments being played by Miss Hazel Diemer. A pleasant feature of the gathering was the presentation of a rocking chair to Mr. and Mrs. Gustafson. The speech was made by Raymond Diemer, and both the host and hostess replied. A substantial luncheon was served before the guests were permitted to depart.

It Does Seem Good to See the School Children on the Street Once More

The life of the town was down when we had to keep them in. Mothers will be busy for a few days getting them what will be required for school uses. Kinds that we carry for children and misses we have large lines of. Our stock is now at its best. Lots of kinds that we cannot buy again—all off the market. We want to show you these new things.

Children's Underwear

We have for heavy weather the Heavy Fleece Jaeger Underwear, 35c to 50c each.

We have for misses the same weight White Fleece Underwear as used by the ladies. These sell at 35c and 45c each.

We have the Bennington Wool Underwear in Gray that is heavy and warm, all sizes. The same goods in boys' at from 55c to 95c each.

Children's and Misses' Knit Sets of Scarf and Togue in all colors and all styles. A large assortment. These are made of finest wool yarn, so scarce. Buy early.

Buy Black Cat Hosiery for best service. Extra heavy for boys, medium weight for girls.

Our line of Children's and Misses' Sweaters are but little more in price than last season. No more until next season, or until yarns are less in price.

This is the Height of the Millinery Season

You cannot afford to pass this large line. You cannot only save on your purchases, but see a larger line. These are shown in the best lighted Millinery Department in Vermont. If anything, too much light.

New Millinery styles are arriving by every day's post and express. If there is a new thing, we intend to have it.

On our first floor you can see our line of Hats for misses. These are all of them new and at prices quite a lot less than you will expect to pay.

We parcel post everything in our Dry Goods, Garment or Millinery lines, so you do not have to come to Barre in order to use some of our best goods. A postal will do the work for you.

Bargain Basement

Do you know that this is one of the busiest places in our whole store. Everything kept clean and neat. Only odd pieces of Best Goods shown. The best place in Barre to pick up good things at a big saving.

The funeral of Kathleen Marie Williams, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Williams of Mann place, whose death occurred Saturday night, was held from the house yesterday. Interment was made in Hope cemetery.

A blazing mattress in one of the upper rooms of the Quinlen block was responsible for a still alarm of fire around 5 o'clock Monday afternoon. The fire was discovered by one of the lodgers at the Quinlen hotel and when he spread the alarm about the building Mrs. Quinlen immediately telephoned to the fire station. Regulars aboard the auto truck responded by taking the Enterprise alley route to the Quinlen. The mattress was the first ablaze when they arrived, but the fire was quickly extinguished, as it had not communicated to any of the woodwork or furnishings. The damage was trivial.

A DAGGER IN THE BACK

That's the woman's dread when she gets up in the morning to start the day's work. "Oh! how my back aches!" GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules taken to-day ease the backache of to-morrow—taken every day ends the backache for all time. Don't delay. What's the use of suffering? Begin taking GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules to-day and be relieved to-morrow. Take three or four every day and be permanently free from wrenching, distressing back pain. But be sure to get GOLD MEDAL. Since 1894 GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil has been the national remedy of Holland, the government of the Netherlands having granted a special charter authorizing its preparation and sale. The housewife of Holland would almost as soon be without bread as she would without her "Real Dutch Drops," as she quaintly calls GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. This is the one reason why you will find the women and children of Holland so sturdy and robust. GOLD MEDAL are the pure, original Haarlem Oil Capsules imported direct from the laboratories in Haarlem, Holland. But be sure to get GOLD MEDAL. Look for the name on every box. Sold by reliable druggists in sealed packages, three sizes. Money refunded if they do not help you. Accept only the GOLD MEDAL. All others are imitations.—Adv.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

"So Long Letty" at Barre Opera House Friday, Oct. 19.

"So Long Letty" Oliver Morosco's comedy with music, which has been playing to crowded houses from coast to coast for more than two years, will be shown at the opera house on Friday, Oct. 19. This merry play was written by Mr. Morosco and Elmer Harris and Earl Carroll provided the lyrics and music. It's a play of California, with a California beauty chorus and a "typical Morosco cast," which means the very best obtainable.

There is a considerable plot for a musical play, in fact the story is based on a successful farce, "Your Neighbor's Wife."

Discontented with their respective better halves, two men plot to swap wives. The women sensing the plot, devise a counter-dance. They refuse to wait for divorce, but insist that they must have a week's trial before they consent to swap husbands for good. At first scandalized at this trial-marriage plan, the husbands consent at last and they swap with each other the night keys to their respective trolley camps.

Of course, the wives do the job thoroughly and at the end of the week there are two humbled husbands pleading for the return of their own latch keys.

The farce is set to a lively accompaniment of dancing, bathing-suit girls, who whirl and dance gracefully and sensibly. It also includes the diversion of a young Spanish girl, in the search of romance.

The comedy is generously injected with tuneful airs and catchy melodies, in which is apparent the Hawaiian coloring of the popular songs of the moment.—adv.
